Description

Stock #359363 - Beautiful Redwood 38GK fifth-wheel in Naples, FL, great for full-time living or traveling, roomy, two AC's, all the upgrades!**
CERTIFIED SINGLE OWNER This single-owner 2014 Redwood 38K is proof that they don't make them like they used to and that RVs that are loved and cared for will last. Built for residential living, the Redwood 38GK is a luxury RV that stands the test of time, packed with great design features that show forethought for how the owner will use it. Three slides, including a bedroom slide-within-a-slide, open this RV up into a massive living space. The huge pass-thru basement under the bedroom provides space for all of your gear along with access to the Dirt Devil central vac, netted shelves for organizing your smaller items, and a drop down flatscreen TV for outside entertainment. The large patio awning protects you from the sun while you enjoy the game or cocktail hour outside. The seller is including a brand new, still in the unopened box, awning shade extension to expand the utility of the outside area. Auto-leveling jacks are the standard equipment on this RV. Inside, this Redwood 38GK is gorgeous, featuring high ceilings, cherry cabinetry throughout, tons of storage, solid surface countertops, and more. The island kitchen is served by two huge pantries with slide out shelves, a four door Norcold fridge with an ice maker, propane stove/oven, convection microwave oven, and well thought out storage solutions for plates, pots and pans, cookie sheets, and more. You could make a fabulous Thanksgiving meal in this kitchen! The rear living room is super comfortable with a pair of recliners and a sleeper sofa built around the large screen TV with surround sound and electric fireplace. The dining table and chairs round out the rear of the RV. Forward of the living area is a hallway separating the bedroom from the rest of the RV. The bathroom splits the hallway with the shower on one side and the water closet on the other. The laundry closet with stacked washer and dryer complete the closet. An extra MaxAir ceiling vent was added to this RV in the closet to assist with moving steamy shower air out of the coach. The bedroom has a king bed with pillowtop mattress as its centerpiece. A huge closet is at the forward end of the bedroom with a sink opposite and a full length mirror behind the door. The slide-within-a-slide configuration opens this room up to be extra large and extra comfy, a true oasis. This 2014 Redwood 38GK is loaded with more features than are easily listed including the Redwood Cold Weather Package, which includes extra insulation, dual-pane insulated windows, and AC's with a heat pump, the Redwood Parks Package, the Full Time Living Package, generator prep, a 2000W inverter, and a Trail-Air pin box. This RV is just about as fully loaded as you can get. Don't miss your opportunity to own this 2014 Redwood 38GK fifth-wheel trailer, truly a model that proves that they don't build them like they used to.
