Description

2023 inTech RV Flyer Explore, inTech RV Flyer toy hauler Explore highlights: Tie-Down Rings LED Dome Lights Tent Bed 12V/USB/120V Outlets Not only is this Flyer toy hauler built to go where most traditional RVs cannot, but it is also built with a standard rear ramp or optional double rear doors, and six tie-down rings so that it can also serve as the perfect cargo transport too! The interior is spacious with its 46" x 81" tip-out bed, and if you add the second optional tip-out bed, you'll have an amazing amount of space on the inside. This expandable toy hauler is very functional, but you can make it even more enticing by adding optional Adventure Package that comes with an A/C, off-road tires, a roof rack, plus a slide out kitchen! This will allow you to cook wherever you choose to camp. The dry weight for this unit ranges from 1,450-1,990 LBS, and the tongue weight ranges from 240-410 LBS. The net carrying capacity also ranges from 970-1,540 LBS. The inTech RV Flyer travel trailers and toy hauler expandable are ready for adventure whenever you are! With the all-aluminum, all-tube cage frame, the Flyer has been built with lightweight and long-lasting materials so that you can enjoy your unit for many, many years. The Flyer has a rugged design so that you can confidently explore new territory and go where traditional RVs cannot. The Flyer has a 2" rear receiver rated for 175 pounds which allows you to bring along your bikes, and the front tongue box is the perfect solution for your storage needs because it is easily accessible and out of the interior. The Flyer also comes with a Bluetooth stereo that has two speakers so that you can always have your best music playing, and the list of optional features is going to entice you to make your Flyer even more exceptional. The optional roof rack will allow you to bring along kayaks, and the optional A/C with heat is definitely going to be tempting to add.
