Description

2020 Jayco Seismic 4113, Jayco Seismic toy hauler 4113 highlights: 12' 6" Separate Garage Massive Countertop Space Raised Patio Full and Half Bath Loft Exterior TV Are you looking to break away from the day-to-day and see new sights? This toy hauler will allow you to bring along your riding toys and invite the family along too! The side patio will be great for relaxing with a cold drink and the exterior TV allows you to watch the big game. There are also two power awnings with LED lights to create a comfortable outdoor living space. Enter from one of two entry doors; the separate garage or straight into the living area. Your crew can relax on the reclining sofa and watch a show on the 50" TV. The elevated kitchen features tons of counter space and the dual entry bath will create a front master suite that will make you feel right at home. With any Jayco Seismic toy hauler fifth wheel you will appreciate the wide body structural steel I-beam construction, and the Magum Truss XL6 roof system, the strongest in the industry that will allow you to enjoy your RV for years to come. Each model features LED high-intensity ramp lights for easy loading and unloading, D-rings mounted to the steel frame to keep your toys secure, and a two inch block-foam insulated garage door to keep you comfortable in any weather. Inside, these models include a SuperSofa with heat, massage, and LED lighting, Shaw "Wood Plank" vinyl flooring, a central vacuum system, and the JAYCOMMAND Smart RV system that allows you to control many functions of your RV right from your smartphone or tablet.
