Description

Stock #174063 - Here is your chance to own a classic Airstream travel trailer! This classic Airstream Overlander travel trailer has great potential as a retro remodel project. This classic design is well known in the industry for its' aluminum exterior and well-made qualities that have always been built into each and every unit that was ever produced. In its day this unit did sleep six people comfortably and has a great layout with a kitchen, a bathroom with toilet sink and shower, but it needs to be entirely renovated by its next owner. According to the seller, this unit is easily trailered behind a medium duty vehicle as its overall weight is considerably less than most in its class. We are looking for people all over the country who share our love for boats/RVs.
