Description

Stock #164236 - This 1965 Ambassador 28 is a complete renovation - built to better than original specifications. Airstream's founder Wally Byam said "we don't sell trailers, we sell a way of life" This piece of Americana is a ground-up restoration- we built this Stream to last.. everything used was the best of the best..all new brake assembly, tires, hubs, and hub bearings. A new suspension- fully restored frame- restored hardware- all new electrical and plumbing. Sanded and re-stained Honduras Mahogany interior oiled with Watco. Double-wall Prodex aluminum insulation with 1-inch vapor barrier. Ambassadors are almost always found with the International option package, with the name International prominently displayed on the side. As a result, many times they are mistakenly identified as "Airstream Internationals". Don't let this one get away as all the components have been either replaced or restored to like-new condition.
