Description

Stock #402479 - Beautifully renovated Airstream sleeps 4 and is very roomy inside. Retro Airstream trailer aficionados will really appreciate this recently renovated 1960 Flying Cloud 22 travel trailer. The original brochure for the Flying Cloud 22 states... "unusually lightweight and compact, yet offers remarkable spaciousness for all your travel-living needs." That's spot on. Take a peek through the photos, and you'll notice how much room this trailer has inside. With its queen bed forward, there's a convertible sofa on the passenger side, so you'll be able to sleep four comfortably. The kitchen is well equipped with a modern fridge, stove/oven, and large sink. The bathroom has a new toilet, and the shower is a good size for life in the trailer. The air conditioner keeps you cool in the summer, and the trailer is well-vented. The original trailer weighed 2900 lbs in 1960. It's still probably pretty close to that, making it ideal for towing behind almost any vehicle. If you've been wanting a classic with that retro design, please call us today to see this trailer in person.
