Description

2024 Bowlus Bowlus Volterra, Bowlus travel trailer Volterra highlights: Emergency EV Charge Starlink Satellite Internet Induction Cooktop Two Twin Beds ? This motorhome is the world's first all-electric RV ! You will love the convenience of the AeroSolar solar system that not only charges the battery management system which delivers 17 kWh of lithium iron phosphate power while at the campsite, but also while you are cruising down the highway. With the 20 A Bowlus emergency EV charge , the range of an EV tow vehicle is extended up to 65 miles. You can keep your bellies full with delicious home cooked meals that are prepared on the induction cooktop which provides a more energy-efficient cooking experience in addition to speed, precise temperature control, and safety. The extended water capacity for your fresh water allows for longer off-grid time or longer showers in the stunning hotel-style en-suite bathroom with room to spread out. You also have yours and mine closets for your clothes, a large vanity cabinet for your toiletries, ample cupboards and drawers for your cooking essentials! ? Look no further than these aerodynamic Bowlus travel trailers! Their low center of gravity and very low hitch weight makes for easy moving and superb handling. The aluminum monocoque exterior skin, polished high strength aircraft aluminum, true high strength aircraft rivets, and TIG welded aluminum spaceframe skeleton will have you feeling like an armored sheath is protecting you. The torsion axle system comes with EasyLube axle fittings so you can be sure they will last. There are two outdoor storage compartments for your outdoor gear and the outdoor caf? table stores in a closet so it can stay out of the way when you aren't using it under the aluminum front porch with diamond pattern. The luxurious interiors have everything you need to keep your bellies full, body well rested, and freshened up. Come find your favorite one today!
