Description

2016 Keystone RV Outback 298RE, The Keystone Outback Diamond Super Lite 298RE travel trailer offers a spacious retreat while you camp, and this one features a rear entertainment area with loads of space because of dual opposing slides in the living area. There is also a third bedroom slide for added space, plus all the amenities you need to enjoy time traveling. Enter the center side door with the bath conveniently located across the hall. The bath features an angled shower, toilet and sink. There is a second sliding door that takes you right into the front master bedroom which can also be accessed from the hall to the right of the main entry door. The front bedroom offers a queen size bed with dual bedside wardrobes, plus overhead cabinet too. The third wardrobe is a slide out providing more storage space without taking away additional floor space. Head left from the main entry door and find yourself in the 298RE kitchen where you can easily prepare and cook food for your family. There is a three burner range, double kitchen sink, and overhead storage on the door side. Across the room find a refrigerator. There is also a pantry for dry good storage next to a linen cabinet that is directly across from the bathroom door. As you make your way to the open living area notice the rear wall entertainment center with overhead cabinets, and pop-up LCD TV. There are also storage cabinets below for your things. You can easily enjoy conversations or television watching from the theater seating in the slide to the left looking back, or from the sofa sleeper with overhead cabinets in the slide on the right which also includes a nice booth dinette for dining. Outside notice the handy outside camp kitchen which features a single sink and dual burner cook top. The front pass-through storage compartment will also allow you to stow away all of your outdoor camping gear, and so much more!
