Description

Awesome, light weight, camper trailer for anyone that really likes to get out there and doesn't want a ton of extra hassle. This thing can be towed basically anywhere you can get to with 4x4 or makes a great camper for hanging at established campgrounds. It is in excellent shape with the exception of a few very minor cosmetic blemishes from standard use. We have also added some quality of life improvements such as a huge batwing awning, custom made cover, and custom cut out memory foam bedding. We just had our first child and need to move on to a different solution. This is fantastic for two people though (and even a dog or two if you don't mind getting cozy).
