Description

Description 2024 Soaring Eagle ADLAR 5.0, Soaring Eagle ADLAR truck camper 5.0 highlights: 45" x 72" Cab Over Bunk Fits Short Bed Trucks Sleeps Three If you've been looking for a lightweight truck camper that will fit even the smallest of trucks, this model is the one! There is a 45" x 72" cabover bunk up front that will provide a great night's rest and a 30" dinette bed for dining and additional sleeping space. The dry weight for this truck camper is 795 lbs., with up to 960 lbs. with options. More available options for this model include a 110V power package, a 12V refrigerator and a microwave, a roof mounted A/C, Quick-Detach jacks, and more! Each one of these Soaring Eagle ADLAR truck campers take the concept of entry level campers and adds real functionality to it! Their entire construction consists of an all aluminum tubular construction for better strength, lighter weight, and indifference to water. The smooth fiberglass exterior and rugged black diamond plate aluminum skin around the lower perimeter will turn heads in the highway. There are LED exterior marker/clearance lights and LED exterior security light over the entrance door for you to see clearly at night. Come find your favorite one today! Sleeps 3 Slideouts
